Subject to the party so delaying promptly notifying the other party in writing of the reasons for the delay and the likely duration of the delay, the performance of such party's obligations shall be suspended during the period that the said circumstances persist and such party shall be granted an extension of time for performance equal to the period of delay. 9.2 Save where a delay is caused by the act or omission of the other party (in which event the rights, remedies and liabilities of the Parties shall be conferred and imposed by the other terms of the Agreement and by law): (i) any costs arising from such delay shall be borne by the party incurring the same; and (ii) either party may, if such delay continues for more than 2 months terminate the Agreement forthwith on giving notice in writing to the other in which event neither party shall be liable to the other by reason of such termination.

10. Cancellation

agrees otherwise in writing. No conduct by the Company shall be deemed to constitute either acceptance of terms put forward by the Customer or a variation of the terms of this Agreement. 11.4 In the event of any inconsistency between any provision of these Terms and Conditions and any provision of the Quotation, the relevant provision of the Quotation will prevail. 11.5 If any provision or any part of any provision of this Agreement shall to any extent be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions or part of that provision shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and each of the provisions of this Agreement shall be valid, legal and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. 11.6 The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the Parties hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts
